We are into our new website and I know that many people have not been able to find things that were on the old site. It is a work in progress and not everything is up. If you need information please contact Anelita, Claudia or Sr. Celeste and we will send it to you. If you want to look at the site for Faith Formation click here <https://sfparishconnect.com/faith-formation/>

There are two sites for use. One is external for the general public and one internal. Check both out as they are developing and can be useful for information.

Our front facing website for the general public: <http://www.sfarch.org>

Our internal website for staff, volunteers, and clergy: <http://www.sfparish.com>

Several important events are coming up. Have you and your parish people registered for the faith formation conference—Hope, Heal and Renew? It is November 4, 5, and 6 and fast approaching.

Remember that you get catechist certification and re-certification for workshops. A list of speakers and credit given will be sent out to each dre/cre soon.

You can go live with workshops for the weekend and then go back to the site and watch other workshops you were not able to get to.

If you need help with scholarships for your parish please contact Sr. Celeste for this.

In Memory of

Sr. Janet Yee Kwan Chau, RSM died at Mercy Care Center in Oakland on September. 9, 2021. She taught religious education at St. Agnes Parish for many years and was active in the Chinese Catholic community leading retreats, often bringing participants to Mercy Center. Even people who are bilingual found a special grace in being able to reflect on their spiritual life in their first language. She also did spiritual direction for many.

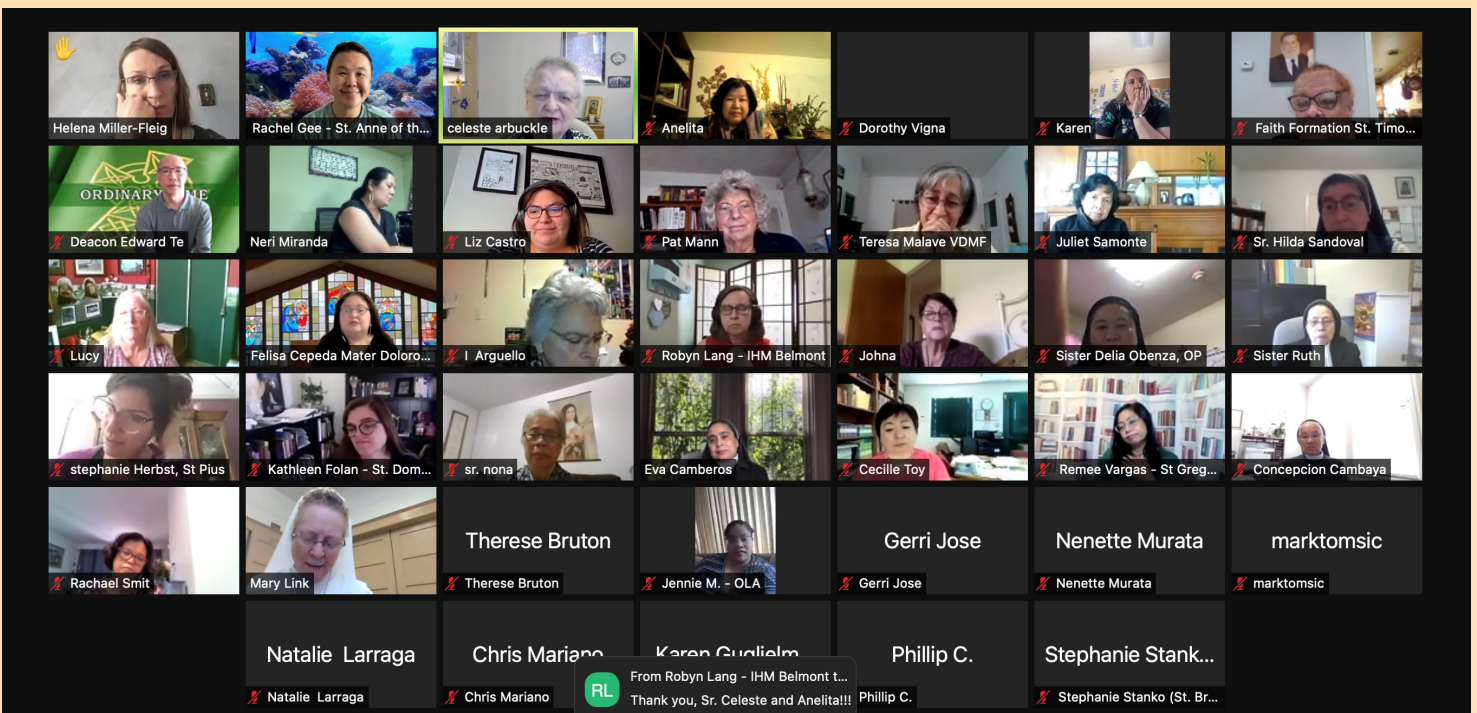

Classes at peninsula Museum of Art helped her discover her art talent and she took delight in selling some of her very delicate and sensitive work with the proceeds going to Mercy Ministries.

She was a great friend to the Office of Faith Formation and we so enjoyed her presence at meetings. There was never a call made to her for help that she did not respond with open arms.

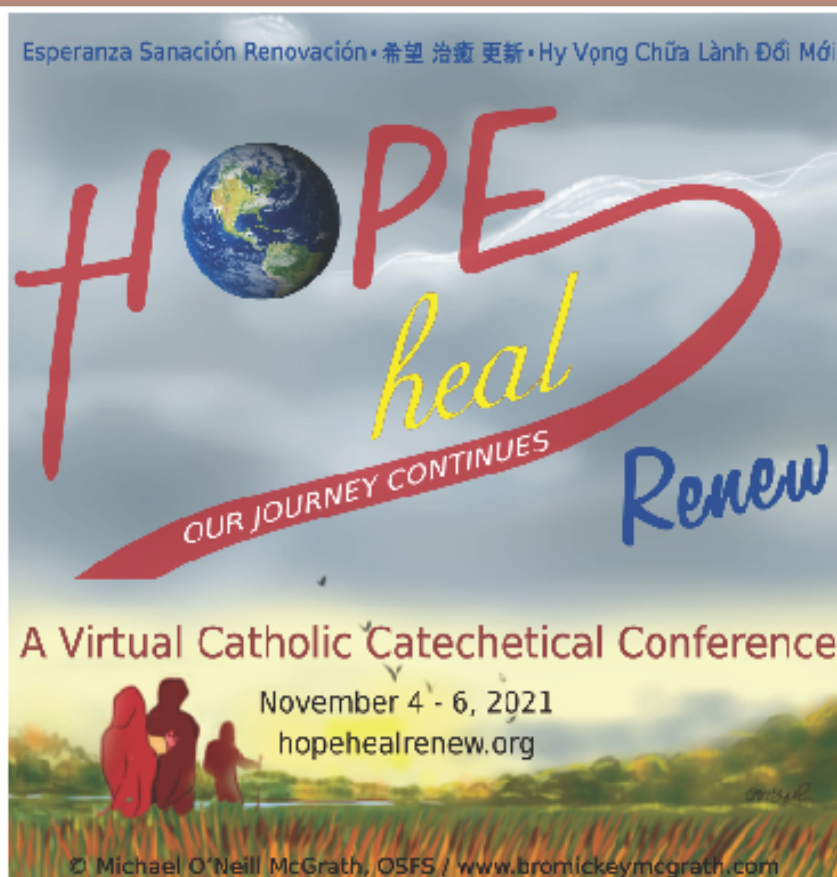

Just some of our wonderful Parish Catechetical Leaders who joined us for our Beginning of the Year Meeting. Thanks for all who attended.

Registration is now open!

Online registration will be opening 9-8-2021

Como cristianos, estamos en peregrinación, acompañados por

Cristo en un viaje sagrado de discipulado. El camino no siempre ha sido fácil, sobre todo el año pasado. Pero nuestro propósito es claro: ser mensajeros de esperanza, sanación y renovación para todos los que encontremos en el camino.

Inspirados por el éxito de nuestra conferencia virtual inaugural del otoño pasado, lo invitamos a unirse a nosotros para participar en liturgias y servicios de oración edificantes, interacciones en vivo con presentadores, sesiones de aprendizaje en varios idiomas, conversaciones con colegas en el ministerio, "Conversaciones con un Cafecito", en tiempo real y mucho más! Ven, quédate con nosotros mientras nuestro camino continúa ...

As Christians, we are on pilgrimage, accompanied by Christ on a sacred journey of discipleship. The road has not always been easy, especially over the past year. But our purpose is clear: to be messengers of hope, healing, and renewal to all we encounter along the way.

Inspired by the success of our inaugural virtual conference last fall, we invite you to join us to engage in uplifting prayer services & liturgies, live interactions with presenters, learning sessions in multiple languages, real-time "coffee talk" conversations with colleagues in ministry, and so much more! Come, be with us as our journey continues...

For Your Ministry
Recruiting and Forming Your Parish Initiation Team Donna M. Eschenauer

Have you ever wondered how to encourage more parishioners to get involved with RCIA in your parish? Have you felt the need to grow your team or help the assembly understand its role in the process of Christian initiation? In Recruiting and Forming Your Parish Initiation Team Dr. Eschenauer answers these questions by • describing and outlining a team approach to initiation ministry; • providing tools on how to recruit, develop, and form an initiation team; • offering insights on the necessary roles and skills needed for an effective team. Eschenauer’s pastoral and accessible wisdom will inspire a team that accompanies inquirers, catechumens, candidates, the elect, and the neophytes on their spiritual journey. Sample pages What people are saying . . . Rooted in the ritual and documents of the Catholic Church, Recruiting and Forming Your Parish Initiation Team moves beyond providing guides for content and recruitment. Dr.

Eschenauer invites us to embrace the call to grow in our understanding of what Christian initiation is about—growth in discipleship. The invitation—given to individuals, initiation teams, and parish communities—to be rooted in our call to holiness is an invitation to fully realize the vision of RCIA. —Rebecca Spellacy, Associate Director for Liturgy in the Office of Formation for Discipleship, Archdiocese of Toronto Donna Eschenauer provides a fundamental vision of an authentic Christian initiation process and how ministries, liturgical practice, parish life, and living the mission contribute to it. Rooting the rite in the conciliar documents and the lived experience of the Church, she shows it as continuing the mission of Jesus today. From reflections on the practice of ministry, to recruiting methods and training outlines, she describes basic and practical steps to a vibrant parish initiation ministry. —Joseph Milner, Director of Christian In , Archdiocese of St. Louis

When we met for our Beginning of the Year meeting people were asking for links to workshops in Spanish that could be provided to meet the basic catechist certification. We are working on getting this together for our dre/cres. If you have good resources you would like to share please send them to Sr. Celeste for the list.
